Solicitors must be registered

THE COLONY, Texas — During this busy holiday season, we often find vendors at our doors hoping to promote a product or service. Please remember that we require them to register with The Colony Police Department and obtain a permit. We strongly encourage you to request to see their solicitor's permit (example shown below).

Code of Ordinances: Section 15-2: It shall be unlawful for persons engaged in interstate commerce to go from house to house or place to place in the city soliciting, selling or taking orders for, or offering to take orders for any goods, wares, merchandise, or other personal property or services, without first having registered with the chief of police.

Please contact the police department's non-emergency number (972) 625-1887 if you believe someone is in violation of this ordinance or if you have concerns about someone going door to door.
